What Calhoun could not effect in twenty years, has been done in six weeks, viz, a union of the South, I do assure you that, in this county, one of the wealthiest, and containing as quiet and intelligent a population as there is in the United States whig too-where first there was a large Union party-there is now no one prominent citizen that I know of, or have heard of, that does not say the time has come for secession. For one, with many ties to bind me to the North-born there—having friends and relations from whom it would be painful to differ-having hoped, and, until my recent visit to the North, having expected that my children and yours would live and die under the same government our fathers had-it was with great reluctauce that I was convinced that the North would not leave us alone, which was al we asked. As it is, I am prepared coolly and calmly to vote for secession, and, if i is necessary, to sustain the vote with life and fortune. The Union, as it has been managed for some years, has no friends North are giving up their hopes, since the news came of the action in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and especially in Massachusetts Nothing but the effectual waking up of the Union mee, (if any such there be,) at the North, and their effectual putting down of slavery agitation there, can now save the No Union party here can save it Their ground has been taken from under them by the nullification of the slave law, and the renewed and increasing agitation withe slave question at the North.
